For elegant Chinese cuisine in a contemporary set-up, TungLok Heen, previously known as Chinois, is the restaurant of choice. Headed by TungLok Group and led by renowned Canada-based celebrity chef Susur Lee and senior executive chef Ken Ling, the restaurant is kitted in elegant dark wood and stone accents with Spanish red tones to create a distinctive Zen retreat.

Enjoy modern creations such as a rack of lamb served in fresh chilli mint chutney, braised shredded abalone stuffed in a crab claw and drizzled with sea urchin sauce, and the smoked foie gras with duck and crispy beancurd skin. For a more intimate experience, you can choose to dine in one of TungLok Heen's three private rooms.
